Jean Way KEYNOTE SPEAKER

For 35 years, Jean Way thoroughly enjoyed a teaching career in Richmond and in the teacher education program at Simon Fraser University. Jean spent the last 5 years of her career as teacher and principal at Galiano Community School. Since retirement, for 10 years she has been very active in the Grandmothers to Grandmothers Campaign of the Stephen Lewis Foundation. With a friend, she started the Richmond Gogos (gogo being the Zulu word for grandmother). She also co-chaired the 25 groups of the Greater Van Gogos, and was a Canadian delegate to the first International African Grandmothers Gathering in Swaziland. Presently, she is helping to launch the Campaign into the United States.
